

Douglas James Cameron

November 29, 1943 - July 21, 2019

On Sunday July 21, 2019 Douglas James Cameron passed away at the age of 75. Doug passed peacefully in hospice care at Lafayette Point.

Doug attended Lakewood High school and shortly after graduation joined the Army and then the National Guard. Doug took his passion for animals, specifically horses and turned it into a business and lifestyle by creating and operating his own horse ranch, Sugar Creek Ranch.

Doug spent the past five years under the care of the wonderful staff at Lafayette Point Senior Living Center.

Doug is preceded in death by his mother Helen Cameron, father Donald S. Cameron, brother Donald A. Cameron. Doug is survived by his sister-in-law Mary Cameron, nieces Susan (Rick) Coder, Kelly (Jeff) Novotny, Tracy (Don) Cook, Amy (Cris) Cruz, Erin Cameron and nephew Donald F. (Tirza) Cameron as well as cousins, great nieces, nephews.

Arrangements made by Addy Funeral Home. A private service will be held at a later date at Ohio Western Reserve National Cemetery.

“ Mary,
Thanks for all you've done for Uncle Doug especially these past few years. I have lots of good memories of cool Uncle Doug when he would show up in his army fatigues and his truck when we lived in Kentucky. He'd sit on the patio with my Mom and the neighbor gals drinking and telling army stories while Dad was still at work. Glad that he's reunited now with his parents and his brother.
